Dear G. B.,

Thank you for taking the time to contact us at PepsiCo and for sharing your thoughts. We always enjoy hearing from a fan of our products and company!

Your description of the football game against Nebraska is certainly colorful; I imagine it was a sight to behold! It sounds like you are a die-hard fan.

The reason we offer a wide variety of beverages is to appeal to many different people. After all, different people have different tastes, and offering them a variety of beverages allows them to choose what they enjoy most! So although Pepsi may not be your flavor choice, there are certainly plenty of other flavors you would enjoy!

Thank you again for contacting us. I am enclosing a Pepsi shirt for you to enjoy. Good luck with the rest of your studies and Go Aggies!

Sincerely,

Consumer Relations Representative
